Praise for PiP

"It's fantastic for everyone to see the books on sale in the lobby. It makes the event of seeing a new play more immediate and celebratory."

— Theresa Rebeck, playwright, The Novelist and O Beautiful

"Like any larger theater, we always get letters from our patrons, responding to our productions — now those letters sometimes include page numbers!"

— Adam Immerwahr, associate producer, McCarter Theater

"The finished product was first-rate... the finished script was correct, attractively packaged and ready for the opening."

— Michael Vigilant, Author of Bear Country at Alabama Shakespeare Festival and C.O.O. of the festival

Does your Production end when the final curtain comes down?

It doesn't have to.

Welcome to PiP: Productions in Print

Your Script, Photos, Essays and More

What is a PiP?

A PiP is a perfect bound paperback book.
It contains the production script, essays from the creative team, cast and crew information, reviews, and photos.

A show is a moment in time.

A PiP is forever.

"Every playwright sits up o'nights dreaming about the perfect published edition of a play... Well, I needn't dream any longer. Smith & Kraus' Productions in Print series is IT."

— David Ives, The Liar, Shakespeare Theatre in Washington, DC
